Academic Discount Order Form

Conditions: The Academic Version is a full featured version of the software without functional limitation. By filling out and signing this form, you understand the Academic Version is non-transferable, not upgradable, and may not be used for commercial work. All orders must include qualifying documents.* This order form is good for customers in North and South America only. See the Maxon web site for other educational qualifications in other regions (www.maxon.net).

Qualifications: In order to qualify for Cineversity Pricing, faculty members must be scheduled to teach a class in design, animation or related field. Students must be enrolled in a post-secondary class in design, animation or related field, or be enrolled full-time in a secondary school (middle or high school). Students may only purchase two (2) versions of each software title before upgrading to a commercial version. Qualified customers must provide a school ID and class schedule as proof of qualification. Please indicate on forms the qualifying class. Non-qualified customers may purchase at the discounted academic price upon providing only one (1) of the above forms of identification.
